

NEW MEXICO GAS COMPANY

FOURTH REVISED RATE NO. 1-8

RATE RIDER NO. 8 –WEATHER NORMALIZATION ADJUSTMENT MECHANISM

Page 1 of 1

DESCRIPTION

Weather Normalization Adjustment Mechanism.

APPLICABILITY

All sales and transportation end-users served under Rate No. 10 – Residential and Rate No. 54 – Small General Service.

APPLICATION

The Weather Normalization Adjustment Mechanism shall be added to each Customer’s bill as a separate line item. It shall be determined by multiplying the number of billing units by the Weather Normalization Adjustment Mechanism Factor computed in accordance with Rule No. 29.

WEATHER NORMALIZATION ADJUSTMENT MECHANISM FACTOR

Rate 10 ($0.0160) per therm.

X

Rate 54 ($0.0088) per therm.

X

CONDITIONS

1. The Weather Normalization Adjustment Mechanism is subject to the same riders, fees and taxes as are applicable to transmission and distributions charges.
2. The Weather Normalization Adjustment Mechanism Factors will be determined annually and become effective with cycle 1, October, in accordance with Rule No. 29.
3. The Weather Normalization Adjustment Mechanism Factors will remain in effect until changed, unless authorized by the New Mexico Public Regulation Commission.

Advice Notice No. 95

/s/Gerald Weseen

Gerald Weseen

Vice President

Regulatory, Strategy and External Affairs

EFFECTIVE

September 27, 2023

Replaced by NMPRC

By: Commission Final Order

Case No. 18-00038-UT Phase 1